Human Rights at the University of Ghent (Belgium). Member of the Board of Directors of the Institute for Human Rights and Development in Africa (IHRDA).

3. This Call is intended for the selection of abstracts that will be presented at the Online and In-Person Thematic Symposia of the Conference, from October 08 to 10, 2024, respectively, in the virtual space of the defined videoconference platform to be presented, in due time, by the Organizing Committee, as well as in the facilities of the Rectory Auditorium of the University of Coimbra/Portugal, or in another place to be designated by the Organizing Committee of the event;

4. The selection criteria of the abstracts are included in this Call.

II – ABOUT THE THEMATIC SYMPOSIA

5. The Thematic Symposia approved by the Organizing Committee of the Conference, the identification of the Symposia Coordinators, henceforth Coordinators, as well as the respective modality (In-person or Online), are listed in Annex I of this Call;

6. The Thematic Symposia approved by the Organizing Committee of the Conference are presented in Annex I of this Call and are divided according to the modality: In-person (P) and Online (On);

7. The modality of the Thematic Symposia indicated in Annex I, under the terms of this Call, will not be changed, and the remote participation of authors in the In-person Symposia will not be possible, except in exceptional situations deriving from sanitation or public health concerns, which requires or justifies the decision to make all presentations remotely;

8. In the event that there are sanitary or public health restrictions or impediments that prevent the in-person realization of the Conference, the Organizing Committee will present to all participants and coordinators alternatives for the online realization and presentation in the Symposia.

III - STANDARDS AND RULES FOR SUBMISSION OF ABSTRACTS AND ON CO-AUTHORSHIP

9. Abstracts written by a maximum of 2 co-authors will be accepted;

10. Abstracts must be submitted using the Open Journal Systems (OJS) application, an open source software developed and provided by a number of Universities around the world, through the Public Knowledge Project (PKP), which will be accessed through the official website of the Conference (www.cidhcoimbra.com);

10.1 In case of co-authorship, the Abstract must only be submitted by the main author, who must indicate the co-author in the submission procedure;

10.2 In the submission procedure, the author must comply with the following rules, under penalty of immediate rejection:

a) The Title of the Abstract must be written in capital letters;

b) The Body of the Abstract must contain a minimum of 300 and a maximum of 500 words;

c) The Abstract must contain: the object of the research, the justification of the relevance of the subject, the objectives, the methodology used in the research, the initial hypotheses, and the final or partial results obtained (if any);

d) After the Body of the Abstract, 3 to 5 keywords must be indicated, in capital letters, separated by semicolons;

e) The Abstract must be presented in one of the languages accepted by the Thematic Symposium chosen by the author(s);

10.3 To comply with the submission procedure, the author of the abstract who has not yet registered in the OJS platform for the submission of abstracts in previous editions of the Conference must perform all the steps described below, while the author who has already registered in previous editions of the Conference must use the same access login and perform the steps described from "b)" below:

- a) Access the OJS platform through the Conference website and insert the required data: name; social name (if preferred), Institution, if any; country of residence; main professional activity; e-mail; username and password (optional data, such as "author's biography" may be filled in at any time, as they do not influence the analysis and processing of the abstracts, but they must be filled in at the time of the initial registration so that they can be published along with the abstracts in the Conference Annals);
- b) Access the submission page through the link "Submit a new Abstract";
- c) Follow the steps described in the submission page:

STEP 1: Start:

- Indicate the Thematic Symposium (Section) to which the Abstract will submitted;
- Declare that the Abstract is original and unpublished;
- Declare that the rules of this Call were observed;
- Declare agreement with the privacy policy;
- The field "Comments for the editor" is optional and should only be used if necessary or if any clarifications need to be made by the author.

STEP 2: Transfer of the Abstract File:

- Upload the file with the Abstract in Word format (as indicated in number 10.2), clicking on "Send file" and, once the transfer is complete, on the "Save and continue" button.

STEP 3: Insert metadata:

- Mandatorily, insert the main title (if there is a subtitle, this must be inserted in the proper field indicated by the platform); the abstract (minimum of 300 and maximum of 500 words); and the keywords (between 3 and 5 keywords), without the need to use a semicolon (just press Enter after entering each word);
- In this step, the author may, in addition, indicate the research funding agency(ies) and, in case of co-authorship, the author must indicate the name and data of the co-author.

STEP 4: Confirmation:

- Finalize the submission by clicking on the button indicated.

IV - SUBMISSION AND EVALUATION OF ABSTRACTS

11. Each author may submit only one Abstract for evaluation, as author or co-author;
12. Abstracts cannot be sent simultaneously to more than one of the Thematic Symposia of the Conference;
13. If an author sends two Abstracts via the submission platform, the Scientific Committee will consider only the most recent submission to be valid for analysis, excluding the Abstract or the author's name, in the case of co-authorship, of the oldest work inserted in the submission system;
14. Abstracts should be submitted between 9:00 am on May 08, 2024, and 11:59 pm on June 03, 2024 (official Brasilia time-UTC-3);
15. Abstracts are initially submitted to the Organizing Committee, which will make a preliminary analysis only of its formal aspects. If the Abstract is compatible with the standards of presentation of the Conference, it will be accepted regularly for evaluation by the Coordinators, and will be rejected should the rules of this Call not be followed;

16. After the deadline for submission of Abstracts indicated in number 14, the respective Coordinators have until June 10 to evaluate all Abstracts regularly received during the submission period;
17. The Coordinators are responsible for evaluating and selecting all Abstracts submitted to their respective Thematic Symposia;
18. Coordinators may also submit Abstracts as authors or co-authors of Abstracts, except for the Thematic Symposium that they coordinate;
19. Abstracts will be evaluated and selected by the Coordinators according to the following criteria: Subject Relevance, within the area of Human Rights; Identification of the Research Problem; Study Objectives; Methodology; Relevance of expected/obtained Results;
20. The composition of the Thematic Symposia, as far as the selection of the Abstracts is concerned, is the responsibility of the Coordinators who carry out the evaluation work with the objective of enhancing the scientific quality in consonance with Human Rights;
21. The Scientific Committee of the Conference will only evaluate Abstracts in exceptional cases and if necessary;
22. Only the list of approved Abstracts will be published in the official website of the Conference (www.cidhcoimbra.com); the authors of the non-approved Abstracts will be informed of the decision by email, without any justification being provided;
23. The list of approved Abstracts, per Thematic Symposium, comprises a minimum of 05 and a maximum of 08 Abstracts.

V - REGISTRATION

24. All authors with approved Abstracts in one of the Thematic Symposia must confirm their participation in the Conference by completing the Individual Registration Form on the official website (www.cidhcoimbra.com) and paying the respective amount indicated below, between June 17 and July 08, 2024, after which registration will be considered effective;
25. All authors must observe the registration fees defined below:

IN-PERSON/VIRTUAL PRESENTATION + PUBLICATIONS + REMOTE LISTENING OF THE LECTURES

Modality 1 - Students of the University of Coimbra; participants of Ius Gentium Conimbrigae - IGC/Human Rights Centre Courses and Associates of the “Instituto Nacional de Pesquisa e Promoção de Direitos Humanos – INPPDH”	€65.00 (Euros)
Modality 2 - University Students (graduates and post-graduates)	€105.00 (Euros)
Modality 3 - Professionals (bachelors, teachers/lecturers, researchers, lawyers, etc.)	€145.00 (Euros)

26. In order to confirm the registrations made in Modalities 1 and 2, in addition to the payment of the registration fee, the respective student certification must be presented, with a date of issue relative to 2024, or alternatively a declaration confirming the link with Ius Gentium Conimbrigae - IGC/Human Rights Centre and/or the “Instituto Nacional de Pesquisa e Promoção de Direitos Humanos – INPPDH”;
27. Registration for in-person presentation, defined in number 25 of this Call, refers to in-person participation in the respective Thematic Symposia and in the lectures that will be held in the Auditorium of the Rectory of the University of Coimbra/Portugal, or in another place to be designated by the Organizing Committee of the event;

28. The registrations for the online presentation, also defined in number 25 of this Call, refer to the remote participation in the respective Online Thematic Symposia and in the lectures that will be transmitted synchronously on a platform to be defined by the Organizing Committee;

29. Registrations for the In-person and Remote Listening of the lectures to be held in the Conference and transmitted synchronously through a videoconference platform defined by the Organizing Committee should observe the values defined below:

IN-PERSON AND ONLINE LISTENERS (IN-PERSON AND REMOTE LISTENING OF THE LECTURES AND OF THE SYMPOSIA)

Modality 1 - Students of the University of Coimbra; participants of Ius Gentium Conimbrigae - IGC/Human Rights Centre Courses and Associates of the “Instituto Nacional de Pesquisa e Promoção de Direitos Humanos – INPPDH”	€25,00 (Euros)
Modality 2 - University Students (graduates and post-graduates)	€50,00 (Euros)
Modality 3 - Professionals (bachelors, teachers/lecturers, researchers, lawyers, etc.)	€75,00 (Euros)

30. Letters of Acceptance will only be provided to authors who register for the Conference;

31. The non-confirmation of registration by the author(s) of the approved Abstracts within the specified period will be regarded as a tacit withdrawal from participation in the Conference;

32. If the author withdraws her/his participation after the confirmation of his/her registration, only thirty percent (30%) of the amount paid will be returned. The communication of withdrawal must be sent to the email address contact@cidhcoimbra.com, by July 25, 2024. After that date, the amounts paid by way of registration will not be refunded;

33. Withdrawals will result in the exclusion by the Scientific Committee of the approved Abstracts in the Annals of the Conference to be published later.

VI - LIST OF CONDITIONAL APPROVALS AND FORMALIZATION OF THE SYMPOSIA IN THE OFFICIAL PROGRAM OF THE CONFERENCE

34. Where possible, Coordinators will be allowed to select 3 (three) additional Abstracts that will be put on a list of conditional approvals;

35. The Abstracts indicated for the list of conditional approvals may integrate the Thematic Symposia, in the following cases:

a) When the author(s) of approved Abstracts expressly inform(s) the Organizing Committee of their withdrawal from participation before registering for the Conference;

b) When the author(s) of approved Abstract does/do not register within the period stipulated in number 23 of this Call;

36. Coordinators who submit a list of conditional approvals should also indicate a preference order for the respective Abstracts selected in that category, since that order will be followed to fill vacancy(ies) at the Thematic Symposium, in the cases of withdrawals as indicated in number 35;

37. The authors indicated in the list of conditional approvals will be informed of this condition by email and will also receive, by email, all the necessary guidelines for registration in the Thematic Symposia should they be considered;

38. The Organizing Committee of the Conference will only open the deadline for registration of the nominated authors for the list of conditional approvals if there are still places available in the respective Thematic Symposia;

39. For the formalization of the Thematic Symposia in the Official Program of the Conference, it is necessary that at least 05 and at most 08 authors of the approved abstracts register for the Conference;
40. In the case of Thematic Symposia whose authors do not confirm their registration of at least 05 (five) participants, by the deadline defined in number 24, the Organizing Committee may seek to accommodate the authors already registered in Symposium sessions with a similar or interdisciplinary topic;
41. At the request of the Coordinators, the Organizing Committee may provide additional sessions for the presentation of the Thematic Symposia that received a significant number of Abstracts for evaluation and in conditions to be approved, according to organizational possibilities.

VII – THEMATIC SYMPOSIA, CERTIFICATES AND PUBLICATIONS

42. The days and times of the Thematic Symposia are defined by the Organizing Committee, which will publish the final schedule by September 10, 2024;
43. The Thematic Symposia included in the Official Program can be held on any of the days of the Conference (morning or afternoon of Coimbra/Portugal time), the choice being at the discretion of the Organizing Committee;
44. It is the responsibility of the Coordinators of each Thematic Symposium to organize and conduct the respective Symposium, ensuring that authors are given a minimum of 10 minutes to present their papers, even when the two co-authors are present, as well as the opportunity for debate with the other Symposium colleagues;
45. All authors who are present at the Thematic Symposia will receive the respective Certificate of Presentation at the Conference, electronically, via email, up until October 30, 2024;
46. All Online Listeners who access and remain connected in at least 75% of the online lectures of the Conference will receive the Certificate of Participation in that condition of Listener. Access will be measured through a report extracted from the streaming platform used for the remote transmission of the lectures;
47. All In-person Listeners who register their attendance on at least two days of the Conference will receive a Certificate of Participation as a Listener. Registration will take place at the registration desk on each day, always at the start of the Conference's in-person activities;
48. In the case of Abstracts in co-authorship, the paper may be presented at the Symposia by only one of the authors, in which case only that author will receive the Certificate of Presentation at the Conference;
49. All participants with approved Abstracts who regularly registered, according to the terms of this Call, will be guaranteed the publication of their Abstract in the Electronic Annals of the Conference;
50. For the publication of co-authored Abstracts in the Electronic Annals of the Conference, both authors must register for the Conference. In the absence of one of the registrations, the published Abstract will contain only the name of the co-author who registered for the Conference;
51. In addition to the Conference Abstracts Electronic Annals, the publication of complete articles will be included in the Annals of Complete Articles of the Conference. These articles must be delivered, optionally, by the authors participating in the Thematic Symposia, between October 25 and November 25, 2024, provided they comply with the following requirements:
- a) Articles must be sent by email to contact@cidhcoimbra.com;
  - b) The Coordinators can only send one complete article, written by one of the Coordinators or in co-authorship, and the text must be presented in Portuguese, English or Spanish;

- c) Word format (doc/docx); size A4 sheet; Font: Garamond; Body: letter 12; Alignment: Justified; with single spacing between lines; with left and upper margins of 3 cm and lower and right margins of 2 cm; containing at least 07 and at most 10 pages, including the bibliography. The title of the paper must be centralized, in capital letters, font 14, and in bold;
- d) The cover page should contain the following identification elements of the paper: 1 - Title and subtitle (where applicable) of the article in Garamond; 2 - Name of each author, unabbreviated, followed by his/her institutional affiliation, if applicable, and academic and professional qualifications, in a maximum of 03 lines, aligned to the right of the text. All titration and affiliation data must be presented in full, with no acronyms; 3 - Abstract and keywords. The Abstract must have between 150 and 250 words, with no acronyms. The keywords identifying the content of the article must contain no more than five words; 4 - All publications cited in the text must be referenced in the author-date citation system and be included in the references presented at the end of the article, in alphabetical order by the author's surname. These are the essential elements for the identification of a document: name of the author, title of the publication (in bold), place, publisher and date of publication. Example: CANOTILHO, José Joaquim Gomes. Direito Constitucional e Teoria da Constituição. 7<sup>a</sup> Ed. Coimbra: Ed. Almedina, 2003; 5 - Footnotes may be used only with explanatory content; footnotes for bibliographical references are not permitted;
52. The inclusion of the articles in the Annals of Complete Articles of the Conference will be made conditional upon the authors signing a term of assignment/responsibility regarding copyright in favor of the Publisher(s) responsible for the production of the work.

VIII – FINAL PROVISIONS

53. The full participation of registered author(s) implies the knowledge of these instructions and the tacit acceptance of the conditions of the selection process, as set forth in this Call, as well as any additional and specific instructions duly expressed for conducting of procedures, of which unawareness cannot be claimed;
54. The acts relative to this selection process, calls, notices and announcements will be published by the Organizing Committee on the official website of the Conference;
55. The follow-up of the publications, additions to this Call, other notices and announcements referring to the selection process of Abstracts are the sole responsibility of the interested parties;
56. It is the responsibility of the interested parties to keep their personal data up to date to enable any necessary contacts;
57. Participants in the IX CIDHCoimbra 2024 who pay their registration fee by bank transfer can ask the Organizing Committee for a receipt within 15 days after payment;
58. Should any of the personal data presented in the Registration Form submitted change, it will be the responsibility of the participant to update the personal data, by sending it to the email address of the Conference - contact@cidhcoimbra.com;
59. The opinions expressed during the scientific activities of the Conference are the sole responsibility of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of the other participants, the Organization of the Conference, the IGC/CDH, INPPDH or any other partner entity of the event, and therefore the mentioned entities cannot be held responsible or liable for their content and related publications;
60. This Call may undergo any changes, updates or additions, as long as the action or event that concerns it has not been consummated, a circumstance that will be mentioned in the Call or notice to be published by the Organizing Committee;
61. Any occurrences, omissions and doubtful cases not provided for in this Call shall be resolved, without the possibility of appeal, by the Organizing Committee.

Coimbra (Portugal), May 06, 2024.
